

Canada's Research-Based
Pharmaceutical Companies

Les compagnies de recherche pharmaceutique du Canada

Rx&D is an association of leading research-based biopharmaceutical companies dedicated to improving the health of all Canadians through the discovery and development of new medicines and vaccines. Our community represents 20,000 men and women working for 50 member companies, and invests more than $1 billion in research and development each year to fuel Canada's knowledge-based economy.

Guided by our Code of Ethical Practices, our membership is committed to working in partnership with governments, healthcare professionals and stakeholders in a highly ethical manner. For more information, please go to www.canadapharm.org
